INSURANCE.—We invite attention to the advetisement of the World Mutual Insurance Company of New York. Captain J. Alfred Cay is the agent for this city, and is prepared to substantiate all

CORONER'S INQUEST.—Coroner WHITING held an inquest yesterday over the body of Mr. James ROURKE, whose unfortunate death was mentioned in yesterday's issue. The facts were the same as then stated, and the jury returned a verdict of death from the accidental explosion of a shell at Auction Sales.—We invite attention to the suction cales of Messrs. Wat. McCay and John Campmell, which will take place to-day, at their sales rooms, No. 136 Meeting street, opposite to the Pavilion Hotel. They comprise a fine assertment of whiskies and rum, furniture, horses, &c. Thes sales offer rare inducements to the purchaser, and we advise a large attendance.

MELANGHOLY ACCIDENT.—We learn from a letter received in this city of a melancholy accident that occurred in the town of Anderson, S. C. On Friday last, Miss Sarah iteratepos, a daughter of the late John Riverson, pert, left her home in Anderson to take a walk, purposing to join her mother and sister, who had preceded her. Not returning at the customary hour her friends became alarmed and went in search of her, but without success and it was not until the Lext day that her body covered in Rocky river. It was supposed that having taken the wrong path she had lost her footing and fallen in the river, and no one being near to rescue her had perished.

ROBBERY.-Robberies have been so frequent ately, that scarcely a night passes without some attempt being made to break into a store or house On Wednesday night the store of Mr. W. B. Burns in Chalmers street, was entered by some evil diposed persons, and robbed of a fine coat, two canaries and cagos and some smaller articles. The robbers gained access to the building by lift-ing one of the shutters from its fastenings, and taking out the sash. Mr. Burke had just opened his establishment as a produce store, and the thieves anticipated a heavy haul, but were fortunately mistaken. The case is now in the hands of the detectives, who will soon bring the miscreants

THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT.—Tara's Hall was once again filled last night with a large and very recherche audience, brought together by the twin motive of charity and the laudable desire to engage in the highly refined enjoyment of listening to good vocal and instrumental music. Marion Lodge, No. 2, of L. O. O. F., before the war, was one of the most prosperous and efficient benevo-lent organizations in this city; but losses during the war, and the very large number of claimants upon their bounty, have necessitated an extraordinary effort to replenish the treasury; and the energetic committee of arrangements, assisted by the entire lodge, succeeded in bringing together a large audience, and we hope, also, a large amount

The concert has been long on the tapis, and. thanks to the unwearied efforts of Professors Berkham and O'Neale, and their able corps of volunteer assistants, everything passed off re markably well. The orchestra. wen. heatra, although repres only, was excellent—every man being master of his instrument. There were two violins one bass violin, flute, clarionet and piano Blanche," with admirable effect. The chorusses salso, showed care and industry, though there ed to be a lack of voices, particularly in the bass. The Duett, sung by Miss G. R. and Mrs.

— MENDELSORN'S "Ich wollt meine Lieb' ergosse ach"—was interpreted with much taste and great ic execution. Miss S. did herself brillian credit in her Piano Solo, and, being loudly encored obliged the audience with a second piece.

The solo "Merry Birds," by Gumbert ("Ich bitt Euch, liebe Voegelein"), a very preity song, was admirably executed by Mrs. Carnot, and earned ample plaudits. Prof. O'Neale sang the Tenor Solo (No. 4 on the programme), and always a favorite with the public, was encored, and gratified his irers with a repetition of the song. The duett "Quet Mara, Quet Terra," snng by Mrs. C. and Mr. F., was conscientiously rendered, and followed by the concluding chorus, the popular "Away, Away!"

less colored idlers, who have no apparent means of support, but are to be seen dressed in fine clothes and lounging around the street corners. These characters, who represent only a very small portion of the colored class, are well known to the police authorities, and have been frequently detected in gambling and in cheating the honest roes out of their bard earned money. Within the past few weeks a number of robberies have occurred, but in every instance the perpetra-tors have been discovered and committed to jail. They have all been recognized as belonging to the crowd of loafing vagrants mentioned above; and, deeming it a wise precaution, several more of the same gang were arrested on a suspicion of being implicated in the late robberies.

If this charge should be unfounded, they can be committed for vagrancy, which will have the effect of ridding the city of their presence for a time, and of putting a curb on their propensity for ac-quiring property unlawfully. The military auif needed, aid the ponce main the way, but will, securing suspicious persons. Since the incarce-ration of the eleven or twelve captured on Wednesday, the city has been comparatively quiet, and though robberies will still continue, the certainty that the thieves will be punished will have a whole some effect in preventing the rapid increase of CLEANING BRICES.—The Burnt District was orna nented during the greater portion of last year by crowds of busy freedmen who could be seen seated in the shadow of an old wall industriously engaged eaning the burnt bricks and piling them neatin cleaning the burnt bricks and plaing them heat-ly in rows ready for use. This employment was at one time so common, and the number of freedmen so numerous, that many persons imagined that the day of reconstruction had indeed arrived, and the raids made upon the old walls was only the being of the new era. Unfortunately their opinions were erroneous, and their dreams of "cl capped towers and gorgoous palaces" have faded and left only the rack behind. The industrious results of their work could be seen and apprecia-ed, there was scarcely a laborer left, though the arvest was still abundant.

The reason for this wholesale desertion is unknown, the stringency of the times and the scarcity of labor may have been the cause, but it is more than probable that the political agitation ed by the Radicals of Congress has stoppe the work and caused the apathy that has appare ly affected both the laborer and his employer. A vigorous onslaught on the ruins would have so levelled them to the ground, and if no other good result had followed, if would have opened the city o the seabreeze, and by removing the unsightly illes, have afforded a better pasture to the cows han they now possess. At present the burnt district is an eye sore to the community, but it is not wet too late to improve it, and we are ple se that some persons have the energy to keep up the work of restoration.

During the past few days a solitary freedman en discerned in the vicinity of the old Apprentices' Library sitting on a pile of bricks like Marros at the reins of Carthage, but, unlike him, the African of our day was not meditating but industriously hammering away at the obsti-nate reartar. "One swallow does not make a summer," but that solitary freedman is, we hope the advance guard of a mighty host, who arms with pick and trowel, will make a havoc among the ruins that will soon number them among the things that were. So mote it be.

The Hibernicon, after a temporary suspension n consequence of the Odd Fellow's concert last night, will resume operations this ovening. The Professor, and Banner, the widow Machine, and the "girril Judy," will all re-appear with recupera ted powers. The tour will be varied to-night and parts of the island visited, hitherto unknown to travellers. An attractive feature will be "the Haunted Guide," or BARNEY and the Ghost. There will also be new comic and sentimental songs There is to be a matinee to-morrow afternoon, and a last exhibition to-morrow night. Schools and families will have a fine opportunity to see this splendid panorama to-morrow afterno

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—Hon. R. MUNBO pre-siding.—The County Docket was continued, and the first case taken up was Dr. JAMES WHALEY US. ELLAS VENNING. B. J. WHALEY, Esq., appeared for the plaintiff. Theo. G. Barker, Esq., for the de fendant. This case was an action brought by Dr. WHALEY for loss sustained from worthless cotton seed purchased from Mr. Venning. He claimed that the seed was sold without a guarantee as to its character. He had planted the seed and had watched it from its early growth to maturity, and was satisfied of its worthlessness. Mr. VENNING had been purchasing seed from every quarter in order to sell it again, and could say nothing about its origin or purity.

Mr. VENNING's statement was that the plaintiff had planted the seed and did not inform him that there was any defect until six weeks or two months after planting, and then only through his attorney. The plaintiff had moreover purchased seed from and without any notification. A number of witnesses were examined and the case was argued o and after a long absence, brought in a scaled ver-

DISREPUTABLE CHARACTERS.—Our city has been infested, for a long time, with a set of lazy, worthmorning at the African Methodist Courch in Calhoun street, and were at once engaged in trying to rescind the work done the day before. Central Committee had been appointed, but it was found that some were distasteful on account o their obnoxious white color, and though perfectly willing to affiliate as a man and a brother, it was not considered the correct thing, and a motion was made to reconsider. This created a windy discussion among the members, in which their knowledge of parliamentary tactics was conspicu-ous, the chair ruling that a motion to lay on the table was out of order. Nothing of any interest to the community was transacted, beyond a resolu-tion to adjourn, to meet in Columbia in July.

The Convention has so far been an evident fizzle, as the State at large is entirely unrepre-sented, and the few now in session are principally from one section of the country. This would tend to cause one-sided legislation, and the proposed adjournment was at once agreed to. This Convention is sustained and supported by money advanced and riba Republican Congressional Committee and to try if possible to creaty the deleparty in South Carolina. These dodges show to the world that they are not so sure of the South as was exultingly stated in Congress, and the tump speakers, who have been sent out to ven tilate their noisome doctrines in the unrec ed States, are the forlorn hope of the party, who think, to use the words of one of their own orators, "that they can slime over the South, and then swallow it." Time will show them their mis-
